Bible Time

God asked Noah to do a strange job. He asked him to build a boat when there wasn't even a lake or an ocean around! God told Noah that he was going to flood the whole earth with water. The boat that God asked him to build was to be huge! It was to be large enough to hold Noah and his family and also some of each kind of animal that lived on the earth. It may have seemed like a strange request from God, but Noah obeyed. Sometimes you might be asked by your parents to do things you don't understand such as "Don't touch that" or "don't play over there" and you wonder why you have to obey. Our parents can see the bigger picture and know what is best for us, God saw the bigger picture and knew what was best for Noah. We need to obey our parents and also God. He knows what is best for us.

Memory Verse

"Jesus said, anyone who loves me will obey my teaching."

John 14:23

Prayer For The Week

Dear God

Thank you that you know what is best for us. Help us to obey you and also the people you have given to look after us.

Amen

Chat Time

Chat about the story of Noah.

Use these questions to help you get started:

Do you think it was easy for Noah to obey?

What do you think the people who were watching Noah build the ark said?

What would have happened if Noah hadn't obeyed God?

How did God reward Noah's obedience?

Modern Hero Of Faith

Smith Wigglesworth was born in Yorkshire to a very loving, but poor family. He was sent to work in a turnip field aged 6. Smith trained as a plumber but eventually gave that up so he could preach God's word. Smith was known for being obedient to God, listening to the Holy Spirit and doing what he was told. Whenever Smith did this, God did his part.

Once, when he visited a very sick woman, he asked God what he should do. "Read Psalm 53", the Holy Spirit instructed him. So, Smith began to read the scripture aloud. When he reached verse 5, the woman leaped out of bed "I am healed!" she shouted. Smith didn't even pray for the woman; he was obedient, and God did the rest.

Ideas For The Week

Retell the story of Noah, can you build an ark and organise your cuddly or animal toys to go in two by two?
