Fruit Of The Spirit - Week 7: Faithfulness

Story Time

Watch the story video from this week's smAll Nations.

Prayer For The Week

Dear God. Thank you that you are always faithful and that you do exactly what you say you will do. Thank you that we can look at examples like Ruth to see how to be faithful. Help us this week to be faithful to our friends and family. Amen

Chat Time

Chat about the story. Use these questions to help you get started:

- Who were the two women in the story?
- What did Ruth promise Naomi?
- Who helped Ruth and Naomi?
- What does it mean to be faithful?
- How can you be faithful this week?

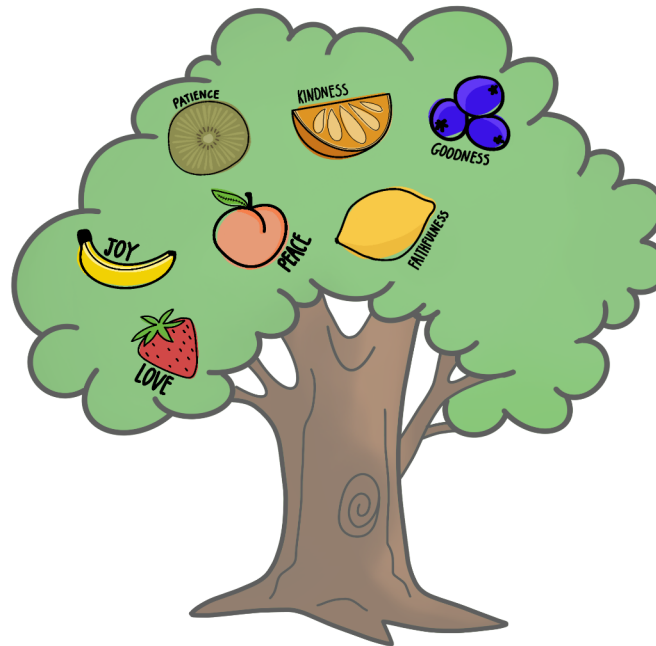

Bible Time

Today's story can be found in the Old Testament in the book of Ruth. It is a really good example of faithfulness. Faithfulness is being faithful and loyal, being trusted to do what you say you will do and putting the needs of others before our own. Ruth was completely faithful to Naomi - she stuck by her just as she said she would and put her needs first.

God is the ultimate example of faithfulness. He is completely faithful and loyal to us, he will do exactly what he says he will do, he always keeps his promises and he has our best interests at heart. He is a faithful God.

So how can we be faithful? You can be faithful by being a friend at all times, looking out for your friends and putting them first (that means listening when they have a problem and finding a way to encourage them). Another way to be faithful is to do what you say - so if you promise to tidy your room, help out at home or do something with someone - do it. It's not easy, we are human after all and we will make mistakes, but God will help us just like with every other fruit of the spirit. So, this week work on being faithful.

Memory Verse

But the Lord is faithful, and will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.

Thessalonians 3:3
